CCNGS is affiliated with the Henderson District Public Libraries. The Heritage Room is housed at the Paseo Verde Library, where there is an extensive genealogy collection of over 3,000 books.

There are also four computers dedicated to genealogical research which provide access to websites such as Ancestry, American Ancestors, and Newspaper Archives.

Additional materials continue to be added to enhance the collection with the latest materials and technology.

Volunteers from CCNGS staff the Heritage Room to assist patrons with their family histories.

Welcome to the Clark County Nevada Genealogical Society

The Clark County Nevada Genealogical Society (CCNGS) is located in Henderson, Clark County, Nevada, and is a non-profit organization founded in 1976. The Society was created to help people find and create their family histories.

Meetings are held on the third Saturday of each month (except July) from 10:00 am – 12:00pm. The monthly meetings are held at the Paseo Verde Library, 280 S. Green Valley Parkway, Henderson, NV (just off of I-215). Meetings, programs, classes and other services are free and open to the public

Volunteers are available to help you find information about your family history, events in history that may have affected your family and materials or programs to help you in your search.

Free classes on beginning genealogy, genealogy software, genealogy standards, library databases used for research, as well as other related subjects are available on a scheduled basis and are held in the Paseo Verde Library.

Mentors are available to assist you with a variety of resources and subjects.
